

Deanery Conference & Festival

Dear Friends

God willing, the Deanery Conference will actually be happening again in 2022 (27-30 May at High Leigh).

The programme of talks planned for 2020 and then 2021 has been 're-purposed' as the Orthodox Fellowship of St John the Baptist Summer Series, which we hope you are able to follow:

(sessions will be recorded).

So we begin planning for 2022 with a clean slate.

Since we have all been through two momentous years in the life of the nation and the Deanery, with little opportunity for people to talk together, it seemed best to begin the planning process with an on-line brainstorming meeting - rather like a virtual version of the final session at the conference.

This meeting will be held via Zoom on Thursday 12 August, 7 p.m.

To receive a personal link to participate, please reply to this e-mail.

The primary objective of the meeting is to invite suggestions for possible themes and speakers; but you can also put forward ideas on possible workshops and other aspects of the programme. If you cannot participate in the on-line session, ideas and suggestions can also be sent to Elizabeth Theokritoff, eat38@cam.ac.uk

We look forward to seeing you, albeit virtually, on 12 August.
